TRANSFORMING HEALTHCARE BY STAYING ONE STEP AHEAD: ABBOTT PANDEMIC DEFENCE COALITION

As viruses continually evolve and emerge, it's critical to monitor pathogens to effectively respond to known and new disease threats. Abbott has expanded on decades of viral surveillance and built new capability through the Abbott Pandemic Defense Coalition. This first-of-its-kind global network is dedicated to ending current epidemics, like HIV and Hepatitis, and helping to prevent future pandemics.

Join us to learn more about this innovative program and its profound impact on Abbott's diagnostic solutions that give laboratorians and clinicians confidence for today and protection for tomorrow.
